AN OPEN LETTER
To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought Chas. H. Fletcher on the and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

March 8, 1897. Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

Do Not Be Deceived.

Do not endanger the life of your child by accepting a cheap substitute which some druggist may offer you (because he makes a few more pennies on it), the ingredients of which even he does not know.

"The Kind You Have Always Bought"
BEARS THE FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURE OF
Chas. H. Fletcher.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE

Against Luetgert in the Testimony In Court Friday.

Rings Found in the Vat Identified as Property of Mrs. Luetgert.

Employe Said Caustic Potash was Not Used In Sausage Making.

Chicago, Sept. 3. Three women gave damaging evidence against the defendant in the Luetgert trial today. They positively identified the rings found in the vat.

The afternoon session was short as Judge Tuthill desired to make a personal visit to the factory and see where the murder is said to have been committed. He took with him one attorney from the defense and one from the prosecution and during their first visit no other person was allowed around the premises.

Carl Voelker, a chemist who had been at one time engaged with Luetgert in the manufacture of permanganate of potash and was at one time a shipping clerk in the factory, testified this afternoon that he was familiar with all of Luetgert's processes for the making of sausage and that he had never had occasion to use caustic potash.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

The Improvement in Business Well Distributed.

New York, Sept. 3. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow: July and August show a lower average of liabilities per failure than has ever been known in years or even in any quarter of the twenty-three years R. G. Dun & Co. have kept quarterly records. The improvement is also well distributed, extending to nearly every important branch of business. With an extraordinary movement in grain, heavy real estate and building transactions and increased crop products the month was clearly the busiest August ever known.

Cotton speculation made August deliveries costly, spot rising to 8¼c but the market drifted back quickly to 7 63c. The opinion is that the crop will be large, if by chance not exposed to serious injury. The mills are now turning out great quantities of goods in response to heavy purchases recently made. Wool sells largely between speculators, 16,568,500 pounds for the week, making reported sales in four months since May first, 191,060,030 lbs., of which 103,762,416 were foreign. Mills have been buying more freely to replace the wool rapidly consumed and the goods market has been so large and strong that they are encouraged to purchase even after a rise of 50 per cent. in a year.

The improvement in the iron and steel industry gains momentum, and a further advance in prices make 4 5 per cent. from the lowest average August 12 h. The demand increases for sheets and plates, especially for bridge and shipbuilding. The demand for cars is pressing, and work for railways increases. Boot and shoe shipments, not quite five per cent. smaller than last year in August, nor four per cent. smaller than in 1893, were 7½ per cent. smaller than in 1894, but were a little larger than in 1892. Sole leather has advanced, again, making quotations average 7.8 per cent. higher than June 2, while hides have also risen, in all 26 7 per cent. since May 1.

Failures for the past week have been 101 in the United States against 331 last year and 25 against 31 in Canada.

Bradstreet's Report.

New York, Sept. 3. Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Previous activity in all lines of trade is maintained. There is a better tone to demand from jobbers, and the volume of business in wool, leather, clothing, hats, groceries and light hardware has increased. There is a better request for woolen and cotton goods, jewelry and rubber goods, and for boots and shoes. Some wholesale merchants at western centers report the largest volume of August trade on record. There has been an increased consumption of cotton by southern mills. Western iron and steel mills have orders to keep them busy until January 1.

The central western States, the bituminous coal strike has had a further depressing effect on the general industrial situation. At the Northwest some commercial houses have had to work over time to meet the demand for goods, and the warm weather is reported to have practically assured the Indian corn crop. On the Pacific coast wheat exports have been checked by inability to secure cars for vessels.

Mercantile collections have greatly improved in some sections.

Last week's general and unprecedented expansion of prices for staples is continued, wool, cotton and woolen fabrics, hides, leather, white pine lumber, sashes and doors, iron and steel bars, billets and rods, wire nails, barbed wire and southern foundry iron, wheat, corn, lard and sugar having advanced and higher prices being expected for boots and shoes. Lower prices are recorded for cotton, wheat flour and coffee, while those for oats, pork, print cloths, petroleum and coal are unchanged.

The week's clearings, amounting to $1,130,000,000, are very heavy, 73 per cent. larger than in the like week in 1893, low water mark during the panic, and 40 per cent. larger than in the corresponding period in 1894.

World's available stocks of wheat (American, European, afloat and Australian supplies), on September 1, are reported by Bradstreet's at 67,913,000 bushels, the smallest at any like date.

Bank clearing for August form a new record for that month. Last month's total, $4,810,878,883, is only 20 per cent. smaller than the largest total in any preceding month and shows the largest gain, compared with the year before, of any month's clearings in former years.

This week's exports of wheat (and flour as wheat) are the largest with two exceptions, the second week of September and the fourth week of August, 1891. Total shipments amount to 6,268,247 bushels, against 5,140,653 bushels last week.

Shipments of corn are also aggregating 3,185,064 bush in this week, against 2,682 453 bushels last week.

There are only 193 business failures reported throughout the United States this week against 210 last week, 336 in the week one year ago, 184 two years ago, 207 three years ago and as contrasted with 379 in the like week in 1893.

Accidental Drowning.

Boothbay Harbor, Me., Sept. 3. The schooner Anna, Captain Thurston, from Portland, with a cargo of corn for Bangor, put in here today and reported that Daniel G. Thurston, uncle of the captain, accidently fell overboard today and was drowned, when the vessel was about five miles southeast of Monhegan.

Contract Awarded.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3. The War Department has annulled the contract of J. S. Flynn, of New York, to furnish 25,000 tons of stone for the Duck Island, Conn., breakwater for failure to fulfill the conditions of the contract.

THE WEATHER.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WEATHER BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 3, 8 P. M.

Forecast for New England and Eastern N. Y.: Fair, northerly winds becoming variable.

Local Forecast.

Boston, Sept. 3. Forecast for Boston and vicinity for Saturday: Fair weather; variable winds.

A FEARFUL EXPLOSION.

Occured in a Mine in Colorado Friday Evening.

Twelve Bodies Have Been Recovered and Others May Be in Mine.

Great Excitement Was Caused by the Catastrophe in That Section.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Sept. 3. An explosion occurred this evening in the Sunshine coal mine near here.

Nine bodies have already been recovered.

A Later Dispatch.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Sept. 3. This evening a terrible explosion of coal dust occurred in the old Sunshine mine, 12 miles from Glenwood.

At this writing 12 bodies have been recovered and so great is the excitement that it cannot be learned whether there are any more in the mine or not. Rescuing parties are still exploring the mine. The bodies taken out are horribly mutilated.

THREW HIMSELF FROM TRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 3. Russell D. Ward, the Englishman who created a sensation a short time ago by eloping with the wife of millionaire John Bradbury, of Los Angeles, California, committed suicide at sometime during the early morning by throwing himself from a Chicago Northwestern railway train.

The fact was not known until hours later and as the result of a search which was immediately begun, the body of Ward was found at Wheatlands, Iowa.

It is not known exactly at what hour Ward leaped from the train, but according to Conductor Calloway the act was committed after 3 o'clock this morning.

Ward was evidently insane when he threw himself out of a car window as he had been acting peculiarly for the greater part of the trip and frequently sent telegrams to various parts of the country. When the train reached Fremont, Neb., he sent a telegram to the police at detective headquarters in Chicago, requesting them to meet the train at the Northwestern depot this morning. He signed the telegram "R. W." and for several hours the police in this city endeavored to find out who R. W. could be. The telegram gave no information but the sending of it makes the police believe Ward intended to commit suicide on the train and sent the telegram for the purpose of having the police find his body when the train arrived in this city.

In Ward's satchel was found only $14 in cash but he had a draft for $150. He also had in his clothing a hotel bill for $94. His body will be held at Clinton until the dead man's friends can be communicated with.

Ward was an Englishman. He was married and has a large family in England. A short time ago he visited Los Angeles, where he met the wife of John Bradbury, a reputed millionaire. Mr. Bradbury and his wife were still young. A sensation was created when Ward eloped with Mrs. Bradbury to San Francisco. Bradbury, when he returned and heard of the elopement, went after his wife and a reconciliation took place between the two at the Wellington Hotel in this city.

Mrs. Bradbury left Ward and all was forgiven by her husband. Ward had friends in this city and the body may be brought here.

The police believe that Ward intended to end his life in his apartment. They argue that he evidently sent the telegram to them while having such an idea in his mind. It was his intention, they say, to kill himself on the train and to have his body found by the police when the train arrived in this city.

Gov. Powers at Grange Meeting.

Alfred, Me., Sept. 3. The York County Pomona Grange held its field meeting here today on the grounds of the county court house. Hon. Amos M. Allen, Speaker Reed's secretary, presided. Among the speakers of the forenoon were Prof. Wood, of the U. of M., and George W. Hanson, of Bangor.

Gov. Powers arrived at 2 p. m. and was greeted by Hon. Edward Wiggin, of Presque Isle, grand master of the state grange.

After a speech by Grand Master Wiggin the Governor was introduced and made a brief address. He said in part:

"I am glad to meet and greet so many farmers. Maine farmers have nothing to apologize for. It is her farmers that Maine is indebted to for the proud position she occupies in the union of states. There is no part of farm labor with which I am not familiar, and I am not ashamed to own that I have eaten bread earned by the sweat of my own brow. Of our 70,000,000 people 32,000,000 are engaged in agricultural pursuits."

Medical Men's Meeting.

Montreal, Sept. 3. The principal work done at the British Medical Association this morning was the reading and discussion of a paper by George Janin, formerly of the Corps des Chaussees in Paris, on mechanical and chemical sewage and the protection of rivers from sewage.

This afternoon Dr. Herman Briggs, of New York, delivered an address at Windsor Hotel.

Print Cloth Market.

Fall River, Mass., Sept. 3. The print cloth market is steady and firm at 2.30.

Bodwell on Behring Sea.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 3. Mr. Bodwell continued his argument today on the question raised by the United States brief concerning the uncertainty of sealing. He went on to show that the captains and crews employed on the British vessels were competent men in every respect and capable of making good catches if they had been permitted to do so. The Indians employed by these captains were intimidated by the United States vessels.

Mr. Bodwell claimed that the evidence furnished by Captain McLean on behalf of the United States was taken from a log that was kept by Captain McLean as a private individual and afterwards destroyed.

He disputed the claims of the United States that these vessels were too small for the dangers of the Behring sea. He claimed that all the arguments regarding the methods of fishing advanced by the United States is in error. He applied the same new work to the description of the habits of the seals as submitted in the United States brief.

Taking up the question of the duration of the season in the Behring sea Mr. Bodwell showed that vessels were able to remain in the sea until October.

Assets Not Equal to Liabilities.

Rockland, Me., Sept. 3. The stockholders' meeting of the Red Seal Remedy Company, of Lowell, formerly of Rockland, was to have been held today, but although stockholders from Providence, Boston, Lowell, Attleboro, Rockland, Union, Rockport, Searsport and other places were present it was found that no quorum of shares was represented. An open meeting was held and both factions stated their sides of the case. It is stated that the liabilities of the concern are about $40,000 and the assets something less than half that sum.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

The Great Miners' Strike May Be Settled Soon.

Committee of Mine Workers Recommend a New Proposition.

Miners Will Undoubtedly Accept Rate of 65 Cents a Ton.

Proposition Provides in Effect for Immediate Settlement.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 3. The end of the great strike is in sight.

This afternoon the national executive board of the United Mine Workers agreed to recommend to the miners a proposition from the Pittsburg operators for a straight price of 65c a ton to continue in force until the end of the year.

A delegate convention of all miners who have suspended work has been called to meet in Columbus, Sept. 8, to act upon the recommendation. President Ratchford and other members say there is not the slightest doubt but that the miners will approve the recommendation.

The proposition does not involve arbitration and in effect provides for an immediate settlement of the strike.

MAINE STATE FAIR.

Trots and Balloon Ascension on Friday.

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 3. The Maine State Fair was blessed with fine weather, today, the air being crisp and sharp, which makes the blood course rapidly through the veins and makes life one glad sweet song. The attendance was estimated by good judges at about 15,000.

The chief attraction, besides the horse races, was a balloon ascension which was very successfully conducted. The exhibits in the pomological and art departments were fine and elicited much favorable comment.

The race tomorrow will begin at 10.30 o'clock. Summaries of today's races:

DR. ANDREWS TO LEAVE BROWN.

That Is Indicated By Attitude Toward Cosmopolitan University.

New York, Sept. 3. In an interview this afternoon John Brisben Walker, the inaugurator of the new Cosmopolitan University, said that Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews had a long conference with him at Irvington on the Hudson today, during which the prospectus for the new project was gone over and carefully prepared. It is now ready for the printer and will be made in a very short time.

From Mr. Walker's remarks as to the possibility of Dr. Andrews going back to Brown University nothing else could be inferred but that Dr. Andrews had assumed complete control of the Cosmopolitan University and would establish his headquarters at Providence.

"In view of the fact that Brown has treated him so nicely," said Mr. Walker, "I have no doubt that he will look after that university's interests until such time as a new president shall be appointed."

Officers Elected.

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 3. At a meeting of the Lewiston and Auburn horse railroad today the following officers were elected: Directors, A. F. Gerald, of Fairfield; Galen C. Moses, of Bath; I. C. Libby, of Waterville; J. M. Robbins and Frank Packard, of Lewiston.

A. F. Gerald was chosen general manager, and Galen C. Moses was elected president.

The Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 3. Today's market was much more regular than that of yesterday, the notable advances not being as palpably manipulated and the concurrent profit taking in other stocks not being on so large a scale. Northwest sold as high as yesterday's high point, but re-acted. But the center of interest in the market was shifted to St. Paul, which sold during the day at 99, a net advance of 3⅜, and which crossed Burlington during the day on enormous transactions. The rise was stimulated by rumors that the dividend rate would be increased. Rock Island's increase in gross for the month of August was $376,310.

The rise in St. Paul invited profit taking all through the list and though a rally followed, closing prices were not at the best. Sugar moved up and down in a feverish manner over a range of five points to a new high record of 159⅝. Louisville was exceptionally strong all day and gained two points net. Many other stocks that have been under recent pressure of profit moved up today. London prices for Americans were higher and London bought about 10,000 shares here on balance.

Sharp gains were shown by Tobacco, Colorado Fuel, Hocking Valley pfd, Illinois Central, Lake Erie and Western pfd, Lake Shore, Metro Traction, Mill & St. Louis, New York, Chicago & St. Louis first pfd, Norfolk & Western pfd, Oregon Ney. pfd, Rio Grande Western pfd, St Joe & Grand Island 2nd pfd and the Rubber stocks. The aggregate sales of all stocks approached 700,000 shares and of these 160,000 were St. Paul and 65,000 Burlington.

Bonds were active and higher, the sales $3,600,000. United States registered fours sold at 112½; new 4s coupon at 127 and coupon 5s at 114½. Total sales $25,000.

AN UNPLEASANT FEATURE

Of the Visit of President McKinley to Columbus.

Report of Threat to Assassinate Him Gained Currency

Columbus, O., Sept. 3. An unpleasant feature of the President's visit to the city today was a report which gained currency through the publication today of an anonymous letter, to the effect that the President was in bodily danger because of the appointment of Immigration Commissioner Powderly, and that extraordinary precautions would be taken to guard him.

The mayor and the director of public safety regard the communication as a hoax and both state that it was never considered seriously.

AT CHARTER OAK PARK.

Hard Fought Races--Star Pointer Won From Joe Patchen.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 3. Today's programme at Charter Oak Park was too long to be finished before dark. Two heats were necessary to bring to an end the hard fought 2.30 trot, seven heats in which were trotted Wednesday. Town Lady won the first heat today in 2.14. Emily took the second in 2.13½ and won first money. Town Lady got second money; Nancy Time, third; and Facomis fourth.

As was expected, The Abbott won the 2.18 trot in straight heats.

Star Pointer won from Joe Patchen with apparent ease. It had been agreed that each horse should alternate at the pole and the toss of a penny decided which should start in that position. Mr. Murphy, owner of Star Pointer, won the toss.

In the second heat, when Patchen had the pole, Pointer had to travel a little faster to get to the wire first and that heat was done in 2.03¼. He landed about half a length ahead in each heat.

Only one heat was trotted in the 2.10 trotting race. The day was fine and the attendance was large, about 10,000 people being present. The summaries:

The 2.30 class trotting, purse $3,000, Emily, ch m, won; Town Lady 2nd. Best time, 2.13½.

The 2.14 class, pacing, purse $2,000, Favor won; Daisy 2nd. Best time, 2.09½.

The 2.13 class, trotting, purse $2,000, The Abbott won; Lucy Carey, 2nd. Best time, 2.15.

2.10 class, trotting, purse $3,000, (unfinished) Dan Cupid, b h, took 1 heat.

In the special race between Star Pointer and Joe Patchen, the first heat was won by Star Pointer. Time, 2.04½. Time by quarters;--first quarter, 30¾; half, 1.01½; three-quarters, 1.32½; mile, 2.04½.

The second heat and the race was won by Star Pointer. Time, 2.03¼. Time by quarters:--first quarter, 31; half, 1.02; three quarters, 1.33½; mile, 2.03¼.

The third heat was won by Star Pointer. Time, 2.05. This heat was trotted for the benefit of the spectators.

BASE BALL.

Boston Takes the Lead Again By Winning Twice on Friday.

Boston, Sept. 3. Boston had no difficulty in winning both games from Chicago today, the scores being 6 to 3, and 9 to 1, respectively. In neither contest did the visitors make any kind of a showing, being outplayed at every point. Both Klobedanz and Nichols were in fine condition and pitched good games for Boston, while Griffith was wretchedly supported. Boston made but three errors in two games. The scores: First game, Boston, 6; Chicago, 3. Hits, 13 to 7. Errors, 0 to 1. Batteries, Klobedanz and Bergen; Thornton and Kittredge.

Second game, Boston, 9; Chicago, 1. Hits, 12 to 7. Errors, 3 to 4. Batteries, Nichols and Ganzel; Griffith and Kittredge.

Broke Even.

New York, Sept. 3. The Giants and Reds broke even in their double-header this afternoon. In the first game up to fifth inning, Sullivan pitched a good game. In the fifth, with one man out and two men on bases, Gleason made a bad error of an easy chance to retire the side. This rattled Mike somewhat and he gave a base on balls forcing a run. Miller then rapped a good single into left field, which, together with Tiernan's throw to third where nobody was, brought in three runs. Then Beckley worked a home run over the right field ropes and Miller came home in front of him.

McPhee singled and went to third on a wild pitch and crossed the plate on Corcoran's out to McCreery. After this it was easy sailing for the reds, they getting two more runs in the seventh and two in the ninth. Breitenstein was in rare form and the giants were unable to touch him for more than one hit in a single inning.

In the second game the reds could not find the semblance of a ball when they wielded the cudgel, except in the seventh when "Bid" McPhee worked a little liner over Davis' head for a single. Their three runs were made on errors by Davis, Gleason and Warner.

Rhines was handicapped by a sore finger and was only able to toss the ball over the plate, the Giants at the same time being unkind enough to fatten their batting averages. Wilson started in to catch the second game, but a foul tip from Hoy's bat injured one of his fingers, and Warner took his place. First game, New York, 1; Cincinnati, 11. Hits, 6 to 11. Errors, 4 to 2. Batteries, Sullivan and Warner; Breitenstein and Peitz.

Second game--New York, 13; Cincinnati, 3. Hits, 15 to 1. Errors, 4 and 4. Batteries, Rusie and Warner; Rhines and Schriver.

At Baltimore--St. Louis, 1; Baltimore, 23.

New England League.

Brockton, Sept. 3. Moynihan pitched great ball today, allowing but three scattered hits and Brockton won easily, bunching hits in the second and fourth. Reilly, Magoon, Gauchnaur and McManus played brilliantly. Score: Brockton, 5; Fall River, 0. Hits, 8 to 3. Errors, 1 to 3. Batteries, Moynihan and Shea; Flanagan and McManus.

Taunton a Winner.

Taunton, Sept. 3. Taunton both outbatted and out-fielded Pawtucket today and won easily. McDougal was a puzzle to all the visitors except Stouch, and held them down in fine style. The features of the game were the batting of Simon and the fielding of R. Moore and Herrington for Taunton, and the batting and fielding of Stouch for Pawtucket. Score: Taunton, 6; Pawtucket, 1. Hits, 10 to 6. Errors, 3 to 2. Batteries, McDougal and Burke; Gallagher and News.

At Newport--Morning, Newport, 7; Taunton, 4.

Not Suspended.

Fall River, Mass., Sept. 3. President Marston of the Fall River club tonight received a telegram from President Young stating that the Fall River club had not been suspended as stated in the press despatches.

Cecil Rhodes' Point of View.

Cape Town, Sept. 3. Mr. Cecil Rhodes, in a speech just delivered at Fort Salisbury, is quoted as saying that the conduct of the parliamentary inquiry into the Transvaal raid would be judged half a century hence.

His personal troubles, Mr. Rhodes is said to have added, were trivial when compared with those of the people of Fort Salisbury district and he continued, his whole future would be directed towards the unity of the South African States, in clear and open policy.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Sullivan Vaudeville Company.

The John L. Sullivan Vaudeville Company gave its second and concluding performance at the Opera House last night before a good sized audience. The specialties were again received with much favor.

Primrose & West's Minstrels.

Primrose & West's Minstrels will appear at the Opera House on Monday, September 6th, in an entirely new bill and with a superior company. Unlike last season the company is composed of white men. Mr. Primrose will again be seen in his exemplification of the dandy colored coon, but with a new budget of songs. George Wilson will amuse with new songs and jokes, while Milt G. Barlow will appear in his famous specialty of "Old Black Joe" and "Jonah and the Whale." The great tenor Raymon Moore, author of "Sweet Marie," will sing new selections from his own compositions, while a company of more than 40 will appear. A matinee and evening performance will be given.

At The Norombega.

The coming week there will be a very strong attraction at Norombega Hall in the form of the Navin Bros' High Class Vaudeville and Bioscope Co. They carry ten first class specialty artists and the Bioscope is the latest improvement of all picture machines--Edison's latest invention. The Bioscope has made a distinct hit at Keith's Boston theatre. The figures are life size and animated and the views entirely new and a positive novelty to those who have never seen them. The management on the opening night allow a free reserved seat to each lady who is accompanied by a paid ticket. The company comes highly endorsed by the papers in all the cities in which they have played.

Middaugh's Musical Comedy Company.

Middaugh's Musical Company will appear at the Opera House on Wednesday evening, September 8th. The Barre, Vt., Daily Times of July 31st, says:

Middaugh's Musical Comedy Company appeared at the Opera House last evening, in a "World of Fun." There was a good sized audience and the performance was greatly enjoyed by all present. The musical efforts of Joseph A. Kelley and Edna Burgess and the singing of Charles Smith were the most taking features of the entertainment.

The selections by the orchestra were good and were appreciated. The dancing of the Elliot brothers was excellent and the comedy work of Kennedy and James created roars of laughter. In fact no better entertainment for the money has been given in Barre in a long time. Nearly every number was encored making it quite late when the performance let out.

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore--Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure.

"For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Some one sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." MRS. ANNA E. BAKER, Whittlesey, Ohio.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Price 25c.

SATURDAY, SEPT 4 1897

The Pennsylvania Democrats are solid for Bryan or practically so The fact, however, will not strengthen his Presidential chances in 1900 as Pennsylvania Democrats are not numerous

The British gold bugs again have the American farmer by the throat This time it is in the shape of 450 000 English sovereigns, or over $3 000 000 coming into San Francisco from Australia in exchange for American wheat

The calamity shriekers of last year have not told the farmers yet how it is that wool and wheat have advanced 50 per cent in price since their shrieks of last year while silver has meantime industriously fallen 25 per cent

Even the enormous importations of wool in the three months prior to the enactment of the Dingley law could not keep down the price of that article [illegible] wool, which brought 20 cents in August last year, sold for 46 cents July [illegible] this year an increase of over 50 per cent and yet silver has fallen 25 per cent in [illegible]

[illegible] farmers are now getting just two and a half times as much for wheat as Mr Bryan and his followers promised them if they adopted free coinage They [illegible] $1 per bushel for wheat [illegible] dollars [illegible] silver [illegible] would be [illegible] now worth 40 cents [illegible] free coinage, will the farmers [illegible] getting two and a half [illegible] good America 100 [illegible]

The silver state [illegible] who recently [illegible] to Japan to learn the true cause of the adoption of the gold standard there could easily have found that out at home had they consulted the tables of the Director of the Mint showing the value of foreign coins during the last decade This shows that the Japanese silver yen which in 1885 was worth [illegible] cents was on July 1 1897 worth [illegible] cents Meantime the gold yen had not changed at all in value This little statement tells the story more completely than all the misleading statements [illegible] these tourists will bring back [illegible] them

[illegible] fear that the "third rail" electric [illegible] would be a serious menace to life [illegible] to have been dissipated by the [illegible] made on the road between Hartford [illegible] New Britain in Connecticut [illegible] has been in operation [illegible] since [illegible] middle of May but it has killed no [illegible] A horse several dogs and some [illegible] have been killed by stepping at [illegible] same time on the [illegible] third rail charged [illegible] and [illegible] rail and [illegible] the circuit Others have [illegible] only shocks and these were due [illegible] carelessness in walking on the track [illegible] making repairs So the [illegible] safety of the system has been demonstrated [illegible] has also been shown [illegible] the electricity still [illegible] even when the track is covered with water and [illegible] miles [illegible] can be reached without [illegible] There are important points to [illegible] made clear in the first practical trial [illegible] this new system of traction

Farmers who have any doubt as to the advantage the Wilson tariff gave to foreign producers in the markets of the United States will be interested in a comparison of the importations of products in June 1897 the last month of the Wilson law [illegible] June 1896 In June 1897 the importers and foreign producers were rushing into the United States those products foreign agricultural which were to be [illegible] or seriously affected by the new tariff The wool imports [illegible] of 1897 were [illegible] pounds, against 5 605 656 pounds in 1896 potatoes 3 [illegible] 360 bushels in 1897 against [illegible] in the corresponding month of last year sugar 708 852 496 pounds in June 1897 against 472 837 376 [illegible] June 1896 rice 23 405,643 pounds in 1897 against 11 [illegible] 281 in the same month last year hides 32 214 724 pounds against 9 13[illegible] 390 in June of last year, [illegible] tons in June 1897, against [illegible] in June 1896 cotton 5 691,641 pounds in 1897 against 1 599 303 in June of last year cattle [illegible] head in June, 1897 against [illegible] head in June 1896

Commenting upon the Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention the Philadelphia Record owned and edited by a prominent Democrat, says

There never has been a convention so disgraceful to the day and the age as the Democratic State Convention held at Reading yesterday It is difficult to speak with patience or calmness of the proceedings

Instead of doing its obvious and necessary work the convention resolved itself into a disorderly mob not amenable to ordinary usage or parliamentary control and proceeded first, without rightful authority to thrust Mr Harrity out of his place as a member of the National Democratic Committee, secondly, to adopt a red rag platform on an issue not in controversy which had been condemned by the largest majority ever cast at an election in Pennsylvania, and, thirdly and lastly, as a sort of after thought while the way to possible success had been blocked and barricaded, to name candidates for Auditor General and State Treasurer

In what plight does this disgraceful action of the Reading convention leave the Democratic voters of Pennsylvania, who will read with shame and amazement the details of its proceedings this morning?

The way in which our Democratic friends are flying at each other's throats is a caution Tillman informed members of his party in New York that they were fools and asses and now Elliot Sleger[illegible] declares that a Democratic convention was nothing less than a "disorderly mob" In the South Irby who aspired to a seat in the United States Senate from South Carolina denounces Tillman as a sneak and a liar This is decidedly hot talk for an off year politically

The New Tariff

Congressman Dingley's paper, the Lewiston Journal, says "Assistant Secretary Treasury Howell, who has charge of the administration of Customs laws and who has been connected with the Treasury continuously for years, states that the new tariff is the freest from errors and difficulties of any tariff law that has existed for a long time, and that its administration has been exceptionally free from uncertainties and conflicts of interpretation—the only provision that has caused any controversy being Section 22, relating to discriminating duties.

The controversy which has arisen over Section 22 has come entirely over two amendments—one having been made by the Senate, and the other by the conference. The section as framed by the Ways and Means Committee and passed by the House was the same as in all previous tariffs, and if it had not been amended after it had left the House no question could have arisen respecting it.

The Senate amendment to Section 22 amended the house section by striking out the words "or any act of Congress" in the conditional clause which is the modification of importance that is causing the most controversy. Many of the papers in commenting on the section assume that the conferees inserted this amendment, and proceed to comment on what they call a "trick" in the dark &c The fact is, however, that this amendment was adopted in open Senate

The other amendment, it now seems, was adopted by the conferees simply to prevent an invasion of the section by the landing of foreign merchandise in Canada by vessels not entitled to equal privileges in our ports, then shipping it to the United States, and was not intended or understood to affect the bonding privilege under which foreign merchandise can be continuously shipped and forwarded through Canada Undoubtedly when finally settled this amendment will be construed as the conferees intended, and therefore all the contention over it fall to the ground

It will be remembered that the free alcohol section of the tariff of 1894 proved to be such a bone of contention as to its true interpretation and administration, that the Secretary of the Treasury suspended all action under it, and asked Congress to repeal, modify or construe it—and Congress subsequently repealed it

ATTENDED THE FAIR.

President McKinley and Party at Columbus, Ohio.

Delivered Address to Large Gathering of School Children.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 3.—President McKinley and party arrived this morning and are the guests of Howe state board of agriculture. With the President came Mrs. McKinley, Senator and Mrs. Hanna, Secretary and Mrs. Alger, Col. and Mrs. Myron Herrick, Webb C. Hayes and other personal friends.

Upon the arrival the committee on reception appointed by the board of agriculture, escorted the President between lines of police to carriages.

The crowd in the vicinity of the station was of immense proportions, the weather being fine and the attendance at the fair very large.

Col. John S. Poland, in command of the 17th United States infantry and Col. Colt, in command of the 14th Ohio National Guard infantry, received the President at the station entrance with the troops at present arms.

Enroute to the hotel the President was welcomed by thousands of people and handsome patriotic decoration of buildings to which he responded. His face being very familiar to citizens of Columbus, the outpouring of people evinced more of the feeling of a warm welcome home to a great personal favorite than anything else to which the scene might be compared.

Luncheon having been served at the hotel, the President, and party took carriages for the fair, overtaking the military, which had gone ahead, to rest in the shade" as requested by the President until he should come up with them at a point near the entrance.

Marching into the large fair ground, the procession moved through a sea of human beings to the main building where the President addressed school children from many parts of the state, who had been invited by card and admitted free.

Later in the day the party was escorted to various buildings of interest where short speeches were made and informal receptions given.

The President was interested in the cottage in which Grant was born. It is enclosed in a building of steel and glass and is the property of the farmers of Ohio, lying permanently located on the fair grounds.

Story by Joe Jefferson.

At the sixth annual meeting and dinner of the Old Colony Club at the Vineyard Sound House, Falmouth Heights, Joe Jefferson presided and opened the proceedings with the following story:

"The worthy Captain has just told me that it is useless to expect of him a speech, but that if he were walking the quarterdeck of a ship he would know where he was. Now, that is where he greatly differs from myself. When I am walking the quarterdeck of a ship I do not in the least know where I am. I am reminded of what once occurred to me. I was crossing the Atlantic. The weather was dreadful. Capt. Ashley knows what that means. I was trying to guide myself along the deck, and, incidentally, to aid others. In this mission I ran across a lady lying prostrated on the deck, evidently sorely troubled with that dreadful disease, seasickness.

"I said to her, 'Madame, may I bring you anything to relieve you?'

"She looked up at me and feebly said: 'I beg you will not mention it. Will you also kindly excuse me, sir?'

"I then said to her: 'But is there nothing I can do for you?'

"'No, sir,' said she in the same tone, 'Please go away.'

"'But, madame,' I said, 'you are evidently suffering. Can I do nothing to help you?'

"'I wish,' said she, 'that you would go away. I am not fit to see anyone.'

"'I am sorry, madame,' I persisted, 'that I can be of so little service. Can I do nothing for your poor husband, the gentleman whose head I see in your lap?'

"'Oh,' said she, 'that is not my husband. I do not know in the least who he is.'"

Susquehanna's Quick Trip.

The big American four-masted ship Susquehanna arrived in New York a few days ago after one of the fastest voyages from Honolulu on the record of sailing vessels. Less than a year ago she sailed from Philadelphia for Japan. From Japan she went to the Hawaiian Islands, and sailing thence May 29, with a cargo of 2,100 tons of raw sugar she made New York in eighty-nine days, covering a course of over 14,000 nautical miles.

The Susquehanna is a Bath ship of 2,600 tons, commanded by Capt. J. E. Sewall, nephew of Arthur Sewall. She is owned by Arthur Sewall & Co. Capt. Sewall had with him on this voyage his wife and a sister. The crew numbered thirty, all told. With a spread of 9,000 yards of canvas, the Susquehanna had the northeast trades with her from the Sandwich Islands to the Horn, which she reached in forty-nine days. She was in latitude 44 degrees south, longitude 118 degrees west on July 4. A pig was killed and the crew had a roast, with punch and fresh vegetables, in celebration of the day.

Gales were encountered west of the Cape but from 50 degrees south in the Pacific around to 50 degrees south in the Atlantic only ten days were consumed. Fair winds marked the run up the South Atlantic. She was nineteen days from the Horn to the equator, averaging 210 knots a day, and one day's run being 270 knots. She was 20 days coming north from the equator. Many a tramp steamer takes longer. Yet the Susquehanna had light winds from the equator. The average daily run for the voyage was 160 knots.

The trip is the fastest made by a sailing vessel from Honolulu since the Sovereign of the Seas did it in eighty-two days in the early fifties. The Sovereign of the Seas was one of the clippers turned out by Donald McKay and one of the proudest sailors that ever hailed from Boston. On her record breaking trips around the Horn she one day made 435 knots and for four days averaged 398 knots.

Sailing ships are made larger now than in those days but they are freight carriers pure and simple and the fine lines and narrow prows of the clippers are sacrificed to cargo space.

His Bread Upon the Waters.

Fifteen years ago Carrie Burch was a servant girl in a California household where William F. Hastings was also employed. The girl became ill and had to leave, but had no money. Hastings loaned her $300, and she went away. The years rolled by without the $300 being returned, and Hastings had forgotten the occurrence when he received a letter from a barrister in London stating that an estate of $78,000 had been left him by a Mrs. Hall, formerly Miss Carrie Burch of California. Hastings could hardly believe what he read, but he has the money now, and for his generosity to a strange girl years ago he has become independently rich. When the girl left California she went to Australia as a nurse and there married a retired English merchant, who died some years afterward, and the widow then returned to London and lived there until her death.—Exchange.

ALL OVER THE STATE.

The Laconia corporation at Biddeford has received fourteen new cards, which will be put into No. 2 breaker room, commencing next Tuesday morning. They are from the Pettee Machine Works of Newton Upper Falls, Mass. The new machinery will take the place of the old cards which were put in by the Water Power some years ago. The room has been shut down for some time and the old ones were taken out and have been broken up. When the new ones are in operation it is said they will be kept running all the time.

Arthur Guertin, a youth of 13 summers, was playing behind Shaw's block in Biddeford Thursday with other boys when some one threw a rock and struck him in the back of the head, making a gash over an inch long. The blood began to flow freely and in a short time the boy's clothing was covered with it. He was taken to his home behind Murphy Bros. store, where the wound was washed and a physician sewed it up. The boy who threw the rock says he did not intend to hit Guertin.

A gold band lily belonging to Mr. J. J. Gerrish, Portland, now bears 25 full blown lilies. The gold band lily is more brilliant than the Easter lily, although similar in appearance. Some of the blossoms are seven inches across and last year the lily bore one flower ten inches across.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cowen, of the north end, the oldest lady in Bath, is in quite feeble health. She will be 100 years old next April.

The transfer of $76,000 worth of Penobscot Shore Line R. R. bonds was made this week by the City of Bath to the Union Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Portland to take care of the $73,000 worth of bonds due the first of this month. The price received by the city was $102.50.

A crew of iron shipwrights from the Bath Iron Works began work Thursday on the U. S. supply boat, Armeria, now on the marine railway where all the repairs will be made. Much of the side plating will be replaced and repairs will be made to the keel and bilge keels. Two new propellers will be placed in position and slight repairs will be made to the engines. The drainage system will also receive attention. The work will be under the direction of Supt. Charles R. Hanscom. The approximate cost is $25,000. When completed the Armeria will be in first class condition.

The Bath Independent well insists that children should be kept away from the court house cells where they go occasionally to converse with the criminals; and in support of its insistence relates the following: A little five-year-old girl was on the banking there alone one day this week conversing through the bars with Bickford, the Bowdoin abductor. Shocked at the sight, a gentleman walking by, called to the little girl to come away, which she did.

There was a little trouble on the schooner Madeleine Cooney when she arrived in Portland last week that was not made public. A Norwegian sailor named Christian Resbik went to the shipping commissioner and asked where he could enter a complaint of ill treatment on the Cooney's voyage there. He was directed to the proper authorities and filed his troubles in black and white. He claimed that the mate, J. H. McVeer, had whipped him three times on the passage and abused him shamefully. A warrant was made out for the mate's arrest and officers proceeded to Randall & McAllister's, where the vessel was discharging, to arrest him. The bird had flown, however, and a most diligent search has revealed no trace of him. The Norwegian meantime got tired of waiting and shipped on the schooner Warren Adams, bound to a coal port, which sailed from there Wednesday. He said that he had been having fits lately and was very unwell and the three beatings from the mate had left him in pretty bad shape. The mate's flight was a pretty good admission of his guilt and he will probably not show up again for the present at least.

Mrs. E. M. Hunter, of Washburn, recently found a gold ring that Mrs. Alex Duncan lost nine years ago in the garden. Eight tenants have lived there since that time and the garden has been cultivated almost every year. Mrs. Hunter was digging potatoes for dinner when she found it and, knowing that the loss of the ring had been a mystery she started with it to the owner, who lives two miles from the village.

On the first while in Portland harbor 40,8000 doughnuts were consumed, 10,657 pounds of confectionery, but notwithstanding they were in the pie belt only 9,200 pies. Portland should resent that reflection on her pies.

The Maine Amateur League will close in Bath next Monday when the Volunteers of Lewiston will play two games with the Baths. The morning game is called for 10 o'clock and the afternoon game at 3. Manager Moses will try to put a team on that will win both games from the visitors, as it will bring the Baths tied for first place and a series will have to be played for the State championship.

The Saco police thought they had another horse-stealing case on their hands Thursday morning, and were making active efforts to catch the thief, when the missing property turned up in safety. Harry Bean, driver for S. T. Bean & Son, the Alfred street grocers, notified City Marshal Burns, of Saco, that a horse and carriage had been stolen Wednesday night from the stable at the corner of Pleasant and Spring streets. He had put up the horse at 7 o'clock, he said, and when he visited the stable in the morning it was gone. The stable was unlocked, so that there was nothing to hinder the thief; and the latter was evidently familiar with the place, for he had picked out a silver-mounted harness. On receiving this information, Marshal Burns at once sent notifications to the police of all the neighboring towns and cities. Suspicion fell upon a certain individual who was concerned in a similar job some time ago, and who had been seen on Water street, Saco. A special effort was made to find where the fellow had gone, and if he had been caught he would promptly have been arrested. But about 10 o'clock Marshal Burns received news which put a different face on the matter. The missing horse and vehicle were driven up to the store on Alfred street, and seated in the carriage was Samuel Bean himself. The explanation was quickly given. After the horse was put up in the stable, Mr. Bean took it out and drove to Goose Rocks, without leaving any information as to his movements. He spent the night there and did not return until after the alarm had been given in the morning. So the warning notices sent out by Marshal Burns had to be recalled and the suspicious character was left unmolested.

Al. Wentworth, a Saco teamster, was severely bruised Thursday morning by a kick from a horse's hoof. He was in C. O. Fenderson's stable on Storer street, Saco, and was in the act of taking the harness off a horse which had just been taken from an express wagon. The horse was standing beside a mare owned by Mr. Fenderson, and while being unharnessed, backed against her. The mare, thereupon, kicked at the express horse and her hoof struck Wentworth full in the side. Though the blow was given with great force it did not throw Wentworth to the ground. He then staggered backward, and then walked unaided across the stable, while others were coming to his assistance. He was carried to his home on Main street and Dr. Maybury was called. It was found that four ribs were broken, but no further serious injuries were found, and it is expected that Wentworth will recover in due time. Mr. Fenderson says that the mare which was responsible for the occurrence is of a good disposition and has never shown any viciousness while being handled. She does dislike, however, the close presence of other horses and kicks whenever any come about her. Mr. Fenderson therefore lays the blame on Wentworth who let the horse he was unharnessing crowd the mare.

There is a section in Warren that has been a prolific field for the incendiary for the past few years. It is a farming section that is afflicted with this soulless, depraved scoundrel and the authorities have yet to unearth him. The property destroyed has been farm buildings connected with some of the most fertile and productive farming land in the State, yet so situated as to be outside the limit to be easily reached by the fire department. Consequently when a fire gets started in such buildings it is not extinguished until the buildings are flat with the ground and the fire dies out of its own accord. These fires of incendiary origin are what make it hard for the honest and industrious farmer to get any insurance on his property.—Rockland Courier-Gazette.

A Bath man has quite an idea, and if he carries it into effect, it may prove successful. It is to buy some umbrellas, have his name and business painted on them, and loan them to people who are caught up street in a sudden shower. Allow people to lease them by depositing $1 and charge them 10 cents per day for their use; if they are returned the next day after the shower, he would refund 90 cents; on the second day, 80 cents and so on. If the umbrella should not be returned at all he would be nothing out and would be having a good advertisement every time the rain shedder was in use.

At the Berlin Mills Co.'s plant in Gardiner everything is running at full blast and about 60,000 feet per day is turned out. About the mill, carpenters are still at work and a few millwrights. Within the mill there are 71 hands employed and in all about 100 hands. Most all the product is shipped as fast as it is sawed.

The police in Biddeford have been notified that Harry Estes, a lad of thirteen summers, has run away from home. He is known to have hired out with a milkman in Saco but has since disappeared. Richard Dion, father of Napoleon Dion, one of the boys who hired a bicycle at Beaudoin's bicycle rooms Monday afternoon and who forgot to return it, went to Buxton Thursday morning, to see if he could find any trace of his son or young Mayotte. Young Dion ran away from home once before and when found by Deputy Marshal Mogar, was working on a farm.

The young Mercer couple which took took a hasty trip from Norridgewock to Waterville, where the Pullman was boarded Thursday night, was duly married in New Hampshire Friday afternoon. It seems that the young man, 23 years of age, the son of a Mercer farmer, has grown up in the sunshine of the love of the 17 years old daughter of a farmer in a neighboring town. The attachment was mutual but the girl's father did not take kindly to the state of things and is said to have used the young man a little roughly upon one of his latest visits to the farm, therefore the young couple proceeded to take things into their own hands and while the farmer was from home the young man from the neighboring town appeared and walked off with the daughter. They would have preferred to have been married in Maine but the would-be-bride looks to be not over 12 years, and no town clerk or justice of the peace would unite the young couple.

The Waterville police are still hunting for the hobo that took from Master Joseph Gilman last week a valuable dog, at the point of a revolver. Doggie, of spaniel lineage, evidently chewed his way to freedom and has returned to his mistress, who found him with a rope tied about his neck in the back yard.

At about 4 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, fire was discovered in the lower end of the ruins of the Consolidated Ice Co.'s plant in Farmingdale, better known as the Rich's houses, which were nearly levelled last May. Mr. Rich was near by and went to work to put out the blaze but it spread rapidly through the whole set. There was not much left except walls and dunnage and four piles of boards used to cover up ice. These they intended to save, and succeeded in saving two, also the cover over the engine and boiler, recently erected. The material was dry and during the evening and night the flames could be seen for some distance. This is the first time this set has been ignited though the set above has suffered several times.

Elegant English Crooks.

Pickpockets, or "hooks," as they are termed in the criminal vernacular, are often well educated and of genteel appearance and manners. Those who work the "tubs" (omnibuses) are exceptionally respectable in their dress and quiet in demeanor. As stated in the printed warning exhibited in railway stations and omnibuses, pickpockets are "both male and female," but the proportion of the latter is small, probably less than 10 per cent.

The best educated and most genteel are generally experts at devices such as card sharping and tossing for money, and, speaking several languages, are enabled to travel all over the world. This class is especially dangerous on board the large Atlantic liners.

Representing themselves as gentlemen of property traveling for pleasure, they disarm suspicion by their liberal conduct in paying for champagne and cigars. But woe to any unfortunate passenger who plays at cards with one of these vampires.

The victim is possibly gently handled for the first few nights, until confidence is fully established, when larger stakes are proposed. He is then plied with drink, and after losing nearly all his money is "kindly" assisted to his berth by his "friend," who coolly rifles his pockets of the remainder. On awaking he is unable to recollect the exact amount of his losses and can only come to the conclusion that he has been very "unlucky."—Pearson's Weekly.

A Gracious Reply to Royalty.

The queen was once informed by the manager of her Shaw farm that a Mr. Elliott, a Scottish farmer, was a breeder of superior collie dogs, and she thereupon expressed a wish to possess one of them. Accordingly Mr. Elliott forwarded two beautiful dogs, and her majesty was so enraptured with them that she gave orders that the next time he came to the farm he should immediately be taken up to the castle.

Mr. Elliott was somewhat uneasy as to how he should comport himself in the presence of royalty, and the manager spent a considerable time in putting him through his facings. At last the fateful day arrived, and he was ushered into the presence of the queen.

Her majesty shook hands with him and said:

"Oh, Mr. Elliott, I have to thank you for the two beautiful collies you sent me."

And to this gracious remark Mr. Elliott replied:

"Touts, touts, wumman! Hand yer tongue! What's the matter o' a pair o' dowgs between you and me?"—London Answers.

The Young Member.

Grantley Berkeley tells, in his "Life and Recollections," how a member for Ludlow, in the last parliament of William IV., tried to make a maiden speech, and, rising in his place with a very bald head, known, too, as he was to everybody, as one of the oldest stagers in all the ways of the world, he began with great affectation of inexperience and with an exceedingly mild voice, "Mr. Speaker, I am but a young member." On hearing this assertion from so well known and crafty a man, possessing so venerable a pate, the entire house roared with laughter. Twice he stopped, and three times he commenced with these words, but it was useless. The house would not listen, and he never, to my knowledge, essayed to speak again, or, if he did, the sight of his bald head set his audience in a roar. Parliamentary manners are milder in these times, but a titter has gone round the chamber, even during the existence of the present house of commons, when a venerable looking member of '60 claimed indulgence for his maiden speech.—Gentleman's Magazine.

A Bakeshop Machine.

One of the latest appliances for use in a bakeshop oven consists of a machine, which takes the whole meat and grinds it, mixes water with it and kneads it into dough ready for the oven.

Open the doors of opportunity to talent and virtue and they will do themselves justice, and property will not be in bad hands.—Emerson.

There will be a meeting in the city rooms at Calais next Tuesday evening for the purpose of forming an alumni association of the Calais high school.

Taking advantage of the presence of the parties who are at Calais doing the roofing on the Exchange Hotel, many blocks are being newly roofed or repaired.

Invitations have been issued for an informal reception to Mayor Swan of Calais at his residence Monday evening, the occasion being his 75th birthday and the 50th year of his practice of medicine in Calais.

Mr. Eben Marsh, an old gentleman living at Parkman's Corner, Palmyra, who on his way to Newport to carry his milk to the factory met with an accident near Mr. R. H. Libbey's and was thrown out and broke his right leg, is doing as well as could naturally be expected.

S. P. Judkins, the proprietor of the Shaw House at Newport, has sold the hotel to E. W. Smith, of Newport. Mr. Smith has had much experience in hotels both as a proprietor and as a clerk. Previous to the purchase he was night clerk at the Elmwood Hotel, Waterville.

A pinch of salt in the bicycle lamp will prevent the flame from smoking and will give a good, clear, bright light. James D. Tabor, of Bath, who has experimented with nearly everything in that line, says it is the best and cheapest thing he has been able to find. Many Bath riders have tried it with good results.

A Rockland man visited Hurricane Isle the other day and while there accidently changed coats with a man. Returning home he thought his coat needed pressing but no sooner was this done than he got word to return it to the rightful owner. He thinks the man on Hurricane Isle is the gainer by that exchange.

Mrs. William Hanson is the heroine of Mohannes, a Milltown suburb. Seeing a hawk swoop down on her barnyard and seize a hen Mrs. Hanson rushed valiantly to the rescue, seized the hawk by the wings and held on till her husband came to her assistance. Mr. Hanson claims that he covered the half mile that he was distant from his yard in less than a minute.

The custom of driving through the country on little vacations at this season of the year is a pleasure being indulged in more and more as the years go by. The roads are at their best, the summer is waning and in the early autumn is found a crispness and exhilaration which, coupled with Maine's magnificent scenery everywhere, afford a delight really not experienced in other months of the year.

The work of turning the stable connected with the Exchange Hotel at Calais was to be commenced this week. The change will give a far better and much improved appearance on Main street than before. General Gallagher is there and is arranging all contracts for these necessary improvements. A large crew of men is employed and the hotel is being pushed forward to completion very rapidly.

Kite flying seems to be becoming almost as popular in Maine as in China, judging by the newspaper reports. But the meanest of all kite flying tricks was that of a New Orleans man, who sent up one at Cooper's Beach, near Rockland, the other day, with its tail decorated with sharp pieces of assorted glass which cut the strings of the other flyers, and caused a shower of kites that for a time was incomprehensible to their owners.

John Curry, mate of the schooner Annie Gus laying at Calais, is mourning the loss of a sum of money which was stolen from the pockets of a suit of clothes left hanging in his stateroom. Ernest Moss, of Holyoke, Mass., a sailor on the schooner, disappeared very suddenly Tuesday morning, and Curry thinks the money went with him. Marshal Miller is on the lookout for Moss, and has asked the authorities of Eastport and other towns to be on the lookout for him.

The growing crop of sweet corn looks well, and in a short time the canners will commence their work. So late is the season, however, that there is great danger from frost. This would be a calamity, for about all the old stock is sold. Packers realize this and do not offer their goods for sale. There will be no trouble in selling all that is put up at good prices, even if, as is hoped, the crop comes out in good shape as to quality and quantity. The outlook for squash and pumpkin for canners' use is bad—never worse. There will be but little.

Melvin Ellis left Ellsworth Monday night, declaring that he was going to reach the Klondyke or get stranded on the way. For provisions on the journey he bought two big cans of Boston baked beans and five boxes of sardines. Besides the provisions the traveler had a big wad of the long green. His plan is well mapped out. When he leaves the Maine Central he will take the Canadian Pacific railway for Tacoma, Washington, and work at lumbering in the neighborhood until next spring, when he will start for the gold fields.

Ellsworth's new fire escape sounds as good as a merry-go-round. Here's the description: A big wheel is fastened to the side of the building. Around the wheel is wound a coil of strong rope the end of which hangs near a window or door made for the purpose. To use the contrivance all one has to do is to grasp the rope and fall to the ground. A spring connected with the wheel checks the speed of descent so that there is no shock experienced when the ground is reached. A wire running from the wheel to the ground can be operated so as to regulate the return of the rope's end to any height.

Frank Smart's family, at Deer Head farm, were surprised the other evening, not being overstocked with neighbors, to see a young lady coming into their house, says the Kineo Echo. It appears that she was a guest at the Kineo House who had gone out to walk and enjoy the scenery and had lost her way on one of the roads leading from the hotel to the farm, and becoming confused when she started to return to the house was walking from instead of to the house. Mr. Smart harnessed a team and was to have brought her back to the hotel when a team from the Kineo House came out in search of her, arrived, and brought her back, where she arrived about 9 o'clock.

A fine horse belonging to Alfred Towers took fright at a small shed near Chase, Barker & Co.'s store in Calais this week and ran towards the water fountain, missing a collision with several teams on his way. Near the shop of Geo. K. Jones & Son the horse jumped lengthwise of a truck team, standing there and fell on the truck. The truck horse reared and plunged and in trying to free himself broke both shafts of the truck wagon. Mr. Tower's horse was held on the truck cart until released. Both truck wagon and the wagon attached to the runaway were badly damaged and Mr. Tower's horse was cut and strained to some extent.

There is one school in Maine that is kept up for just one family. This school is located on Gardner's Island in Englishman's bay on the Washington county coast. The island is owned by the wealthy Gardner family of Boston, of which Mrs. John L. Gardner is the most prominent member, and Mrs. "Jack" spends several weeks each summer on the island. The care taker who resides here the year round with his family is Herbert Long, a well known and hard working farmer. The island belongs to the town of Roque Bluffs and the people out of consideration for the many favors of the Gardners have bestowed on the town give Mr. Long a term of school all for his own little flock.

HAPPY WOMEN

Each Relieved of Periodic Pain and Backache. A Trio of Fervent Letters

Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my health was gradually being undermined. I suffered untold agony from painful menstruation, backache, pain on top of my head and ovarian trouble. I concluded to try Mrs. Pinkham's Compound, and found that it was all any woman needs who suffers with painful monthly periods. It entirely cured me.—MRS. GEORGIE WASS, 923 Bank St., Cincinnati, O.

For years I had suffered with painful menstruation every month. At the beginning of menstruation it was impossible for me to stand up for more than five minutes, I felt so miserable. One day a little book of Mrs. Pinkham's was thrown into my house, and I sat right down and read it. I then got some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I can heartily say that to-day I feel like a new woman; my monthly suffering is a thing of the past. I shall always praise the Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me.

MRS. MARGARET ANDERSON, 363 Lisbon St., Lewiston, Me.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of painful menstruation and backache. The pain in my back was dreadful, and the agony I suffered during menstruation nearly drove me wild. Now this is all over, thanks to Mrs. Pinkham's medicine and advice.—MRS. CARRIE V. WILLIAMS, South Mills, N. C.

The great volume of testimony proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safe, sure and almost infallible remedy in cases of irregularity, suppressed, excessive or painful monthly periods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Rev J M Frost of this city, will give his lecture "Golden Opportunities" at the Epworth league convention to be held at Sprague's Mills on Sept 13, 14 and 15.

Bangor men will be out in force to morrow to hear Mrs Nelson Bangor's popular soloist, who sings at the Y M C A building, and Rev H F Foss, who is to speak. This is a fine attraction and ought to fill the house.

To-day the annual reunion of the Silsby family will be held on the home stead in Aurora and many will be present. Mr George S Silsby, of Bangor, with his brothers from Washington, D C, Roberts, Wisconsin, and St Paul, will attend.

Col I K Stetson saw four deer yesterday morning while wheeling up the bicycle path. They were feeding about three miles up and were not greatly disturbed by his approach until he had come within a short distance. The Niben Club seems to have a game preserve as well as other fine attractions.

Mr E H Gerrish left his horse standing in front of his canoe making establishment on Hancock street yesterday, and when he came out after him the team had disappeared. It was thought that the horse and wagon had been stolen, but in a short time the team was found in a yard near by where the horse had wandered.

About 12 15 o clock this morning Miss Kate Moran a domestic for Mayor and Mrs Beal at the Bangor House had a narrow escape from injury. She had occasion to use the elevator and was running it down herself. She did not rightly shut off the power at the first floor and as she stepped from the elevator was thrown to the floor of the passage way. The elevator fortunately not touching her. She escaped with some bruises.

With the next change of time on the Maine Central railroad, which takes place on Sunday, October 3, Bangor will be given the best train service that she has ever had in the fall and winter. General Manager George F. Evans of the Maine Central, has arranged the schedule for the convenience of the Bangor business men and the people who desire to visit the city may arrive here early in the afternoon, have two or three hours for business and return home in the evening.

The police service during the fair was excellent. Chief of Police Gilman had his able patrolmen stationed to the best possible advantage the day officers were also on duty part of the night and night officers part of the day in addition to regular day and night service. The ground was thoroughly covered by the chief and his officers and the result was that petty larceny which always accompanies big crowds, was reduced to a minimum and but one or two cases were reported. The great crowds were also handled very effectively.

The Farmers Product Company of Maine has opened offices over the Kenduskeag National Bank in the rooms formerly occupied by the Penobscot Savings Bank. Mr Maxfield informed a Whig representative that he was in constant communication with the farmers in Aroostook county and his advices are to the effect that they are increasing their sheep flocks very rapidly. Hon Thomas H Phair has one hundred sheep on his farm and proposes to increase the number. While in Bangor during the exhibition this week Mr Phair offered thirty dollars for one of the imported rams to improve his flock.

Mr Richard V Moore died at Old town on Thursday after a short illness occasioned, it is thought from the result of a wound received in the civil war. He has been an invalid for the past twelve years. Mr Moore was first lieutenant in Co I 1st Maine Heavy Artillery. He was formerly a member of B H Beale Post G A R, No 12 of Bangor, also a member of St Andrew's Lodge F and A M, of Bangor. He was the first mail clerk running from Bangor to Vanceboro for a term of 10 years. He leaves a widow, one son Americus Moore, of Milford four grand children and one sister, Mrs Clara Bosworth, who have the sympathy of their many friends. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o clock at his late residence.

THE HAMLIN MEMORIAL
On Exhibition at City Hall

Sculptor Alexander Doyle of New York city who with Mrs Doyle has been in the city for several days, returned to his summer home at Squirrel Island on Friday. Before leaving, at the suggestion of the Hamlin memorial committee he placed on exhibition at City Hall his model for the Hamlin memorial statue. The model is in the committee room next to the office of the city clerk.

The pedestal extends from a base of broad steps which run clear around the foot. In front of the pedestal one hand raised to write with a stylus upon the tablet is a half-draped female figure, History writing Hamlin's fame upon the table of stone.

The Hamlin figure stands erect, one hand on his coat lapel and the other upon a table at his side.

The face was drawn from portraits of Mr Hamlin at the prime of his life but Mr Doyle does not wish it understood that the face of the model accurately portrays the features as they would appear in the statue. The model shows great skill and faithfulness in expression and is highly creditable to the able sculptor.

The model is ready for the inspection of the public and many will doubtless call at City Hall to view it.

Fifty Years Ago.

This is the way it was bound to look
When grandfather had his picture took;
These were the shadows cast before
The coming of Conjurer Daguerre
And his art; like a girl in a pinafore
Some day to bloom to a goddess fair
Men certainly were not as black we know
As they pictured them 50 years ago

began to make new men, just as the new pictures of men began to be made. Thousands of people fronted the camera with skins made clean from blotch and blemish, because they had purified the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is as powerful now as then. Its record proves it. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record:

Fair Weather Again---The Fair to Be Continued Today.

Friday was the fourth day of the fair but the attendance held up well and it is estimated that in the vicinity of 8000 people were at the grounds.

The fakirs made life merry and put in some of their best oratory in order to draw every possible ducat from the crowd and close out their stocks as the fair was rapidly coming to an end.

"Is there a dollar left in this park for me" pathetically inquired the whip seller as he laid down five whips which he would sell for $1. His appeal had such an effect that two citizens produced $2 from their inside pockets and ten whips changed hands.

The Midway was in full blast and had a considerable patronage.

The weather was pleasant and a little cool but still just about comfortable for traveling about the park. Truly it has been another excellent week for the fair every day being pleasant and favorable.

AFTERNOON AT THE PARK.

Rodman B Robin Bird Alta Rosa and Amerique the Race Winners—Events Witnessed by Another Good Crowd

A chilly breeze blew across the park yesterday afternoon, but despite this and the fact that it was the fourth day of the fair there was a good sized crowd in attendance. The first event on the score card was the unfinished running race left over from Thursday. Rodman B was the winner. The judges reversed their decision regarding Bronx and allowed him to start. Following is the complete summary:

The 2 40 Class

Six horses came to the wire in this race and got the word in the following order: Robin Bird, Tarratine, Ketchup, Benjamin F, Folley and Hopeful. All of the horses went into the air on the turn but Robin Bird squared away quickly and went away from the field so fast that he could have distanced the others had he been pushed to the wire. After opening up a big lead while the others were fiddling, he was taken back and went an easy mile.

In the second heat the horses went steadily and the drive home was a close one. At the wire Robin Bird only led Folley by a neck. It having been intimated that Folley was not driven out, the judges took her owner down and put up Mr McAloon. In this heat Folley went around the turn so fast that she carried Robin Bird to a break and opened up a long lead at the quarter pole. She made the half in 1 13 and then McAloon seeing that he had a great lead attempted to ease the mare a little in order to save her for the remaining heats but the moment he took hold of her she went into the air and did not get away again until in last place.

Tarratine made a bid for the heat down the stretch and pushed Robin Bird so hard that his driver used the whip freely. Had Tarratine staid on his feet he would have captured the heat, but he went to a break just before reaching the wire. Following is the summary:

The 2 25 Class

Of the four horses started in this race Alta Rosa had the speed. Gypsie Boy made a pretty drive with her the two horses going along as a pair in each heat, but there was not a foot of the track when Alta could not step away from the field. Edwards drove a steady race and gave the mare her head just enough to land her a winner. In the last heat Pembroke made a strong bid for second place. He went up the back side of the track on last half very fast and easily overhauled Gypsie Boy. He failed to beat him home, however and Mr Wheelden complained that the driver of Gypsie Boy crowded him against the fence. Following is the summary:

Running Race

Amerique with her owner Barry Woods up had a walk-over in this race. The mare is equal to going with some of the best of them. HURDLING BY THE CAVALRY.

A Stirring Exhibition of Rough Riding by Troop F

Troop F, U. S. Cavalry, appeared for its first exhibition at about 4 p. m., with the troop in full dress uniform. The musical drill was splendidly given on the ball field and again it received the admiration and warm applause of the spectators, who always greatly enjoy it.

The troop then returned to camp and changed to rough riding uniform. At about 5 30 out came the gallant troopers again. They rode on the base ball field and then prepared for some hurdling—a new feature of the week's evolutions.

First the troop several times jumped in line a low fence near the fence surrounding the track and then rode out into the field.

The three long hurdles, which had been made for the occasion were placed in position and the troop first went over them in single file, then by twos, fours, eights and elevens. Next they sailed over the hurdles standing in their saddles with crossed stirrups.

It was a grand sight to see the horses, with the erect troopers on their backs, come thundering down the field and leap the hurdles with bird like grace. Most of the horses took the hurdles with great agility and clearing them with a good space to spare, but occasionally a horse would strike the hurdles with his fore legs and knock them down.

As the hurdles had not been strongly constructed the supports were soon knocked off or broken and the buglers and fair employes were kept busy nailing them together. Capt. Dodd humorously suggested that a safety pin might have been used to advantage. Finally a long piece of timber was placed upon supports and used.

One of the horses is a comedian. He ran up to the hurdle with great confidence but stopped short in front of it. The trooper turned him around and made another rapid start but again the horse stopped. The rider urged him on and the horse deliberately stepped over the hurdle in a manner which made the crowd laugh heartily. At other times the animal went over all right.

Two of the horses fell heavily by getting mixed up in the hurdles and the riders were thrown hard. One horse planted the trooper down by falling on his leg. Strange to say neither the men nor the horses were injured. Troop F's men are not only expert riders but expert fallers as well.

After the hurdles Capt Dodd gave the command for making the horses lie down. All with one exception a new horse, at once settled down upon their sides. In battle the troopers would then fire at the enemy over their backs. It took some little time to get the new horse to recline upon the green sward but he finally got down. When the command was given for rising all the horses jumped to their feet excepting this one, which took his time.

The exhibition was decidedly fine and highly interesting and stirring.

The troop returned to camp about 6 15. The collation and reception to have been tendered the privates of the troop by Co G of this city last evening at the armory, was postponed to this evening.

BALLOON ASCENSION.

Prof Bonnette Lands In the River But Is Rescued

Prof Bonnette made another successful balloon ascension in the afternoon but got a wetting. The wind was blowing from the northwest and after going up to a considerable height he floated down [illegible] in his parachute. He landed in the water opposite the property of the Katahdin Ice Company but some sailors from the schooner Lydia M Darling put out in a boat and rescued him.

"SLIDE FOR LIFE."

Another Successful Run on the Wire

Miss Pussell's slide for life again came off successfully on Friday and the high run on the long wire from the grand stand to the base ball field was watched with the usual interest by the spectators. The feat requires both nerve and strength.

The Ball Game

The ball game yesterday afternoon between Colby and U of M was not finished the cavalry coming on the field while the game was in progress and it was not taken up after the cavalry drill. It was a 10 inning contest. At the end of the 9th the score was 3 each and in the 10th Colby made 4 runs in their half by a timely hit or two and bad errors by U of M. U of M made two runs and had a good prospect of others when the cavalry came on. Cushman pitched for U of M and Mooers for Colby. Each team has won two games this week.

Today's Programme

Today will be the last day of the fair. The races will include the 2 35 and 2 18 classes and a consolation running race. The cavalry will give another grand drill, for the last time here, and Prof Mosher, the fine trick bicyclist, will appear on the track. The admission to the park will be 25 cents, with children under 15 years free. The grand stand will be free.

Notes

In the grange contest, between Queen City of Bangor and Hampden grange the entries were large and very creditable. The judges awarded Queen City grange first prize and Hampden grange second. The committee recommended a gratuity of $3 to Miss Ellen Vickery for point lace handkerchief and collar.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.

Work to Begin Very Soon on Building—Road to Site in Good Condition—Picnic Next Week

In another column appears an advertisement for proposals for building the country club house at Pushaw Lake to be received until Saturday Sep 11, at W E Mansur's office where plans and specifications may be seen. One month will be given for the completion of the building the plan of which has been somewhat changed and improved since the original drawing. The club members are looking forward with great pleasure to the opening of the house the middle of October, which occasion will be made a notable one.

The road into the club house grounds has now been completed so that bicyclers can ride over it. The point has been cleared of trees and it is found that the club has a very attractive spot much more desirable than any one had anticipated. The road is 25 feet wide, the bicycle path being 7 feet wide and to be separated from the driveway by a picturesque birch rail fence. The drive way about the house will be attractively laid out and the drive to the club house will be a fine one.

The town of Orono has a crew at work repairing the road from the bicycle path to the club road, partly at the expense of the Niben Club. A path will be made alongside the road and notices will be put up requesting drivers of teams to keep off the bicycle portion of the road.

Next Wednesday afternoon there will be a picnic at the club house site the bicyclers to go out the bicycle path and those who do not wheel to drive out. It will be an enjoyable occasion.

A crew of seven men is at work on the bicycle path cutting out the grass and putting it in fine condition.
